

Scholarship Sponsored by the TOEFL® Program

Are you an ELT professional wishing to share your valuable classroom experience and knowledge with the wider international education community?

At the TOEFL® Programme we can help you realize your potential by offering the resources and platform to share your unique perspectives and expertise in the field of teaching English for Academic Purposes (EAP) or Testing, Evaluation and Assessment (TEA).

The presentation should include your (classroom) research results or practical ideas for classroom activities that can help build necessary language skills crucial for effective use of English in an academic setting.

The scholarship consists of:

- Registration for the IATEFL TEASIG Pre-conference Event
- Registration for the IATEFL Conference
- One-year IATEFL Membership
- GBP 800 towards conference expenses
- Mentoring from ETS for your presentation

To qualify you must:

- Be currently working as an EFL teacher/lecturer
- Agree to present on EAP teaching approaches, skill building or testing in the IATEFL Conference and submit a proposal according to IATEFL's guidelines.
- Have prepared learners for taking the TOEFL iBT® or equivalent tests; OR have gathered information about the effectiveness of using standardized test scores for decision making in various contexts.

To be considered, you should submit:

- A presentation proposal by the scholarship deadline
- An essay (400-500 words) explaining your approach to EAP teaching/assessment, the strategies you have been applying, and related skill-building activities you have created.
- A bio (50-75 words) specifying your EAP-related experience over the past 18 months.
- Submit an article of your work and conference experience within 6 months of the event.

The submission deadline is 16.00 (UK time) on Wednesday 21 June 2023. Early submissions are very welcome; late submissions will not be considered.

The result of your application will be emailed to you between 7 and 21 August 2023. Please do NOT contact the IATEFL Head Office about scholarship decisions. The Scholarship Committee will send everyone the results as soon as they are available.
