

Gillian Porter Ladousse Scholarship

This scholarship was set up by the Teacher Training and Education SIG (TTEd SIG) in 1999. The driving force behind the conference fund was Gillian Porter Ladousse who was Coordinator of the SIG at the time. The fund, which was named the Gillian Porter Ladousse Scholarship after Gillian's untimely death in 2002, was set up to enable a teacher trainer who is a member of TTEd SIG to attend the IATEFL Conference.

The scholarship consists of:

- registration for the TTEd Pre-Conference Event
- registration for the IATEFL Conference
- GBP 1500.00 towards conference related expenses

To qualify you must:

- be an individual member of IATEFL and a member of TTEd SIG
- be a trainer with between three and fifteen years' experience in ELT
- agree to give a talk or workshop on an aspect of teacher training during the IATEFL conference
- agree to write a post conference article for the TTEd SIG newsletter on your talk by May 2025
- agree to write an article for the TTEd SIG newsletter on how attending the conference affected your programme of work in your local context by December 2025

To be considered, you must submit:

- a speaker proposal by the scholarship deadline
- an essay of between 400 and 500 words in which you :
 - outline briefly your training context and describe a successful training session you have given
 - list the factors which made it successful
 - draw broad conclusions for your future training practice
 - outline briefly how attending the conference will benefit you and others

The submission deadline is 14.00 (UK time) on Wednesday 19 June 2024. Early submissions are very welcome; late submissions will not be considered.

The result of your application will be emailed to you between 12 and 23 August 2024. Please do NOT contact the IATEFL Head Office about scholarship decisions; the Scholarship Committee will send everyone the results as soon as they are available.
